

O HOW I love Thy law,
My teacher every day:
In all the woes of life,
My wisdom and my stay.

2 What understanding broad
Expands my willing mind:
So far beyond all else
That in this world I find.

3 How sweet the words of God,
Revealing from above
Such views of things divine,
Such grace, and power, and love.

4 A lamp to guide my feet,
A light upon my way:
This perfect Word will I
With all my heart, obey.

5 In dangers and in trials,
Its promises I prove;
Hold fast its counsels sure
With gratitude and love.
