

LORD my God, I trust in Thee,
From despair deliver me,
When th'accuser comes in power
Seeking whom he may devour.

- 2 Lord our God, if we have done
Deeds unworthy of Thy Son,
Deeds so dark as to expose
Our weak souls to Satan's blows . . .
- 3 If we've lost our hold above,
Then, dear Saviour, look in love;
Wash away our guilty stain,
Purge us and restore again.
- 4 Or if Satan's hate unfurled,
Scorn of men with insults hurled,
Come because we love Thy Word,
Vindicate Thy Truth, O Lord!
- 5 Lord, we know Thy justice will Soon remain no longer still,
When the violent shall dismayed
See Thy righteousness displayed.
